

Jewish Catholic Dialogue Group

Open Doors, Open Minds:
Synagogues and Churches Studying Together
First Session: Sunday March 14, 2010, 1:00 p.m.
University Synagogue

Many of you have participated in the joint programs St. Martin of Tours Church has sponsored over the past two years with University Synagogue. I am pleased to announce that we are moving to the next level, whereby our group will focus on relevant topics and a meaningful exchange of ideas to help foster mutual understanding and appreciation between Jews and Christians.

The Jewish Catholic Dialogue Group is sponsoring a program that has been used successfully around the country to inspire interreligious dialogue: Open Doors, Open Minds: Synagogues and Churches Studying Together.

We will meet for seven sessions, possibly one session per month. Each session will start with a short film centered on a relevant topic, triggering questions and meaningful dialogue. Each session builds on material covered in the previous sessions. The meetings will last approximately one and one-half hours.

Our first session will be held on Sunday, March 14, 2010 at 1:00 p.m.
